SUPERMODEL-WORTHY LEGS

OK, so I'm probably not going to have time to get a faux tan on my pasty white body in time for all those holiday parties (if I'm lucky, I'll remember to shave my legs) but Silk Stockings is my secret and it's what every A-listener uses in Tinseltown. It's a tinted moisturizer with vitamin E, calendula, chamomile that adds a sheer hint of color to your legs, decollate, shoulders—anywhere that you show skin—giving a flawless luster and airbrushed skin. It stays on until it's washed off.
