

Votre Vu Duette Luxe Lips & Luxe Hand Creme

NOVEMBER 2014

The Elegance of Hand Creme & Lip Balm

November 19, 2014

As a young child I remember watching my mother get ready. To me she appeared elegant and a bit magical as she applied her creams, make up and perfume. She is French and wonderfully feminine and her influence instilled in me a love of beauty products and the rituals of applying them.

When I came across Votre Vu's Duette, a lip balm and hand cream, I immediately thought of ma mere. This luxurious product is thoughtfully put together by inserting the lip balm into the lid of the hand cream. Images of applying both as I lounged in a silk robe on satin sheets were irresistible although thermal p.j's and cotton sheets are my reality of the moment. I love that it is a perfect product to leave on your night stand as a reminder of taking care of your lips and hands before you go to sleep.

The Luxe Lips Moisturizing Lip Balm contains corn starch, a great source of beta-carotene and vitamin C. It also has shea butter and palm kernel oil.

The Luxe Hand Creme is made of sunflower and grape seed oils and wheat protein. Both products also contain Parsol, an excellent sunblock ingredient. I noticed that Votre Vu also makes this duo with a tinted lip balm. I'm throwing that one into my handbag for daytime use.

It is available at www.votrevu.com for $39.00 and this one is going to my mother with beautiful silk pajamas.

Sending glowing wishes,

Vanessa
