The 7 Best Products to Anti-Age Your Hands

By Michelle Ferrand | November 23, 2015

Navigating the anti-aging skin care world can be overwhelming. There are hundreds of products that claim to smooth, strengthen and color-correct—and this is just for your face. But just as important it is to find the right face cream, you have to find the perfect hand cream; one that will keep your hands glowing, smooth and youthful.

Here we highlight seven of the newest anti-aging hand creams that every woman should keep in her skin care arsenal.

Votre Vu bebe Duette in Pamplemousse ($18)

The phrase “kill two birds with one stone” could never ring more true once you get your hands (and lips) on this hand cream–lip balm duo. The hand cream smells like a ripe, zesty grapefruit, which is a great jolt to your senses, but because it also has aloe extract, it will help soothe super dehydrated skin, too. Within minutes, your hands are left silky soft and you have a perfect pout.
