We all know the often-overused saying “New year, new me,” but sometimes when the new year comes, we just want to make tiny tweaks to our already awesome selves. Instead of a completely “new” us, we get the urge to upgrade our look. But with all of the other things we resolved to do, these changes need to be easy enough to fit into our hectic lives.

So we asked some of the top hairstylists and makeup artists in the business to explain which small adjustments we could make for a true upgrade in 2017. Even if you can't give up carbs or get to the gym today (you tried, we believe it!), you can make these nine simple hair and beauty updates.

Try out a rose-tinted lip

“If you used to be a smoky-eye girl with super pale lip, ditch the concealer-shade lips and replace it with a beautiful rose or peach, like Votre Vu CHAMPS-éLIPsée in Spark, to update your look for the new year. This year is all about color and embellishment.”
