

7 Celebrity-Inspired New Year's Eve Makeup Ideas to Try Now

DECEMBER 9, 2015 @ 5:30 PM

BY: MARIANNE MYCHASKIW

Fact: The makeup you wear on New Year's Eve is almost important as your plans for the entire night itself. We're especially inspired by Lupita Nyong'o's gorgeous ruby shadow—while red is a color typically reserved for your lips, the rich jewel tone can be wearable by concentrating the color just on the upper lids, and using a sweep of black liner to balance the effect. "It's usually something people might

In addition to Lupita's eye-catching look, we put together a list of even more #BeautyInspo for New Year's Eve, complete with step-by-step instructions from the pros who created each look. Scroll down to find out how you can master them before the ball drops.

NEILSON BARNARD/FILMMAGIC

6. ANNE HATHAWAY'S PEWTER EYE

A shimmery silver eye, while apt for an event like New Year's Eve, can make you look a little washed out if not grounded correctly, so take a page out of Hathaway's book and enlist the power of your favorite black liner to complete the look. Hathaway's makeup artist Jillian Dempsey used the Black Eye Crayon by Votre Vu around the perimeter, then used the Azure shade just along her lower lash line ($23; votrevu.com). She followed by dipping her shadow brush into the pale shimmer section of the Palette Play Eye Quad in Violette ($42; votrevu.com), and topped off the entire effect with a few generous coats of mascara.

<http://www.instyle.com/beauty/celebrity-inspired-new-years-eve-makeup-ideas>