As a rule, you need to commit to an anti-aging skincare product for a few weeks in order to see its claims in the flesh, literally. There are some products, though, that elicit an immediate tightening response, and your skin actually starts to feel firmer within minutes. Using it over time is what helps those gratifying results last more than a day, but when you've got somewhere to go and you want to look younger by 5 p.m., you won't hate having these serums on your top shelf. Scroll through to check out a few formulas that get to work ASAP.

2. VOTRE VU LES SORBET

Let's call this frozen face food. This popsicle-like serum is made with marine elastin and collagen and vegetable peptides to support your skin's structure, relax facial muscles, and boost circulation. The cooling sensation you'll experience once the icy formula touches your skin will soothe and calm your complexion, tightening and toning it in the process.
